Weaver's simplicity of design makes it very dependable. With proper maintenance, trouble-free performance becomes the norm!

Weaver's rugged built family of Industrial Dome / Silo Reclaimers are engineered and field proven for industrial applications requiring continuous unloading of Rough, Tough and Hard packed materials.

Weaver Ring Drive Reclaimers have a knife-tipped sweep auger that is built with progressively increasing pitch which allows material to enter along its entire length. The sweep auger pivots at the center of the dome / silo and sweeps around the dome / silo reclaim floor. As it advances around the floor of the dome / silo it rips, tears, and plows loose the hard-packed material and moves it to the center where it flows into the discharge hopper. Weaver's simple and trouble-free mechanical drive, advances the sweep auger around the reclaim floor of the dome / silo. It can be operated and serviced from the control room or reclaim tunnel. Daily reclaimer operations can also be performed automatically from remote control stations.
